

Jennifer Sandusky

Youth and Teen Program Coordinator

Jennifer Sandusky has had many roles during her career here at the YMCA of Indiana County. She began as a Staff Member of Y-Kids based at Blairsville Elementary, worked as an MSR 2008-2010, Summer Day Camp Specialty Camp Director for the past two summers, Youth Sports Coordinator since August 2010, and Big Hearts Little Hands Mentoring Program Interim Director since February 2011.

Jen is originally from Central City, PA. She is a senior at IUP dual majoring in Health and Physical Education and Sport Administration with a minor in Business. She has been active in sports her whole life. In high school she played basketball, volleyball, softball, track, and was a cheerleader. Before attending IUP she continued her basketball, volleyball, and softball careers at Mount Aloysius College. Her passion in life is sports and working with children.
