

Shawn Sebring has been Sr. Program Director at the YMCA of Indiana County since 2010.

Shawn is a native of the Midwest, growing up in Painesville, Ohio. He spent hundreds of hours in the Lake County YMCA Central Branch in Y-basketball, soccer and swimming programs. Jr. High and High school he participated in Boy Scouts and learned a great deal about leadership, planning and taking reasonable risks.

After graduating from Ohio University Shawn worked for YMCA Camp Mason as summer boys camp director and YMCA Camp Tochwogh as environmental staff. His professional career began at the Downtown Pittsburgh YMCA as Youth and Sports Director before moving onto Lake County YMCA's East End Branch. There he worked as Youth and Family Director leading Teen Leaders Club, summer day camp and a variety of youth programs.

Before joining the YMCA of Indiana County Shawn was an entrepreneur and worked for Crossroads Community Church in Madison Ohio as their Children's Director.

Shawn and his wife Michelle have four children and love spending time outdoors hiking, cycling and participating in sports.
